Cathedral clergy helping in the Diocese

The Cathedral clergy offer to officiate in parishes in the Diocese which are currently without an Incumbent or where their priest is on holiday or unwell. Canon Skinner is at St John's, Whorlton, this morning.

Junior Church

Junior Church Summer Term dates are: today and 24th June; and 8th and 15th July.

Bible Study Group

The weekly meeting of this lively and stimulating group takes place at 11.00am on Thursdays in the Education Centre. The focus during the remaining weeks of the Summer Term will be on the Revelation to John and on the Letter to Titus. All are welcome to attend. (The last meeting of this term will be on 12th July; the Autumn Term meetings will commence on 13th September.)

House Group

The House Group, to which all are welcome, is intended to help us grow in our Christian faith and life and to get to know each other better. The next meeting will be at 8.00pm on Wednesday this week, 13th June, at the home of Ruth Lunn (Silver Birches, 73 Montagu Avenue, Gosforth, NE3 4JN). We will be continuing our discussion of Rowan Williams' recent book Being Human (copies available on the bookstall). If you would like to know more, please speak with Canon Harvey, Ruth Lunn or Chris Davies (Lay Clerk) – or simply come to the next meeting.

Messy Cathedral

The next Messy Cathedral is on Saturday this week, 16th June, at 2.00pm. The theme will be care of the environment. Further details from Canon Skinner – jean.skinner@stnicholascathedral.co.uk.

Newcastle City Centre Churches Together

Summer in the city – Heroes of the faith

All are invited to attend the following talks, each of which begins at 7.00pm. Further details from Katherine Govier.

Thursday 21st June – Canon Bernard East - St Ann's, Breamish Street, Battlefield.

Thursday 28th June – St Dominic – St Dominic's Priory, New Bridge Street.

Newcastle City Centre Churches Together – Might you be able to help?

Newcastle City Centre Churches Together are looking for someone to act as Treasurer for our group. This is not an onerous task but we do need someone to look after our finances. If you think you could fulfil this role or would like to know more, please speak to Katherine Govier.

Organ Recitals – Mondays at 1.05pm

These lunchtime recitals feature the Cathedral's temporary Phoenix digital organ in a mixture of solo concerts and performances with other instrumentalists and vocalists. Each recital lasts 40 minutes. Admission is free, and there is a retiring collection (suggested donation: £5). The recital tomorrow, 11th June, will be given by Kris Thomsett (Assistant Director of Music here at Newcastle Cathedral).

Choir concerts in aid of next term's Choir tour

This evening, 10th June, at Holy Saviour Church, Tynemouth, the Lay Clerks and Choral Scholars will be singing a varied programme of music to raise funds for the forthcoming Choir tour. Tickets are £8 and will be available at the door. Further details from John Lewis (Lay Clerk).

The entire Choir will be holding a Grand Sing-a-thon on Saturday 7th July at 1.00pm in the Cathedral – again to raise funds for the Choir tour next term. You may make a small donation simply to come and listen to the music, or a larger donation to request a specific piece of music. If you would like to sing with the Choir, that will cost a little more! And, for an even more generous donation, you will be able to conduct the Choir! For details of suggested donations, please speak with Ian Roberts, Kris Thomsett, John Lewis or Emily Stolting.

Will you play a part in our future? We'd love to hear from you.

As part of the development phase of our Common Ground in Sacred Space project, and to help support our Round 2 application to the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) later this year, we are looking to gather information from visitors and potential visitors to Newcastle Cathedral. Given that you are reading this Weekly Notice Sheet – unless you are doing so online – you have clearly visited the Cathedral; indeed, you are likely to be a member of the worshipping community. We would like you to share your views with us, by completing an anonymous survey (which should take you about 3 minutes). If you are willing to complete this survey, please click on: <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/M952HJS>. Many thanks in advance for participating – your feedback is very important to us, and your contribution will help to make a difference to Newcastle Cathedral.

It's important that we stay in touch!

As you are probably aware, new data protection laws came into effect on Friday 25th May. This means that we can't email you about what's happening at the Cathedral unless you explicitly give us permission to do so. So, if you would like to receive news and information from us by email, please contact Catherine Mair, Head of Marketing and Communications, at: catherine.mair@stnicholascathedral.co.uk to give your consent. You can find out more about how we use your data from our Data Privacy Notice which can be accessed here:

Appointment of the new Dean – Message from Sir Philip Mawer

'As most of you will know, it has been my privilege to chair, at the request of the Archbishop of York, the panel for the appointment of the new Dean. The Cathedral has been fully and very effectively represented in that process by Eric Jubb and David Lawrence, as well as by Canon Ian Flintoft from the College of Canons. I pay tribute to them and all the members of the panel for their part in this process.

'The panel met on Friday 1st June to interview a number of candidates. I am glad to say that we were successful in making an appointment and that we made it unanimously.

'I realise that you will all immediately want to know the name of your new Dean. I am afraid I am going to have to disappoint you on that. You will realise that such appointments are subject to a number of checks before they can be ratified, so an announcement is unlikely much before the end of this month. I can only assure you that as soon as an announcement can be made, it will be made.

'Meanwhile there is much praying to be done – for the candidates who were not appointed; for your new Dean; for the Chapter, staff and congregation of the Cathedral as you prepare for a new and exciting phase in the life of the Cathedral; and most of all for the mission and witness of the Cathedral itself, to the City and to all of the Diocese of Newcastle. May God go with us all as we move forward, confident in our faith and excited by the opportunities ahead of us.'
