The new Dean – Two dates for your diary

Choral Evensong at 4.00pm on Sunday 16th September will be a service to give thanks for, and to mark the end of, Geoff's ministry as Archdeacon of Northumberland. He will be installed as Dean of Newcastle at 4.00pm on Saturday 20th October. Further details in due course.

Crèche

During the Sung Eucharist on Sunday mornings, there are books and toys for young children in St George's Chapel, for parents and carers who would like to take their child/children for a few minutes during the service. The service is relayed into the chapel, to enable parents and carers to continue to follow what is going on in the Eucharist.

House Group

The House Group, to which all are welcome, is intended to help us grow in our Christian faith and life and to get to know each other better. The next meeting will be at 8.00pm on Wednesday this week, 1st August, at the home of Ruth Lunn (Silver Birches, 73 Montagu Avenue, Gosforth, NE3 4JN). We will be beginning our discussion of Simon Reed's book Followers of the Way: Ancient discipleship for modern Christians. If you would like to know more, please speak with Canon Harvey, Ruth Lunn or Chris Davies (Lay Clerk) – or simply come to the next meeting.

Bible Study Group

The weekly meetings of this lively and stimulating group will resume on Thursday 13th September.

Messy Cathedral does Science – Wednesday 29th August

This special Messy Cathedral, from 4.30pm to 6.30pm, will be led by Lucy Moore, the founder of Messy Church, and some of the national Messy Church team. It will be an afternoon of fabulous fun and learning about science and the bible. To reserve places, please contact The Revd Rachel Scheffer: r.scheffer@newcastle.anglican.org.

Organ Recitals – Mondays at 1.05pm

These lunchtime recitals feature the Cathedral's temporary Phoenix digital organ in a mixture of solo concerts and performances with other instrumentalists and vocalists. Each recital lasts 40 minutes. Admission is free, and there is a retiring collection (suggested donation: £5). The recital tomorrow, 30th July, will be given by Andrew Wyatt (Chester Cathedral).

Newcastle City Centre Churches Together – Might you be able to help?

Newcastle City Centre Churches Together are looking for someone to act as Treasurer for our group. This is not an onerous task but we do need someone to look after our finances. If you think you could fulfil this role or would like to know more, please speak to Katherine Govier.

Hospitality at the Cathedral

We are looking to provide drinks for visitors to the Cathedral in the same way that we do on Sunday mornings – ie in the South Transept. The Great Exhibition of the North could see an increase in visitors and this is an ideal time to pilot a Drinks Station. Christine Hawkins has kindly volunteered to cover Mondays from 10.30am to 4.00pm. If anyone else would be interested in offering some time to support this venture, please get in touch with Canon Skinner:

The Arts Society and the Great Exhibition of the North

The Great Exhibition of the North is a display of the culture, art and history of the whole of the north of England. The Arts Society, formerly NADFAS, has arranged a series of lectures to be held between now and the end of the exhibition in September. There are details of these on the table at the back of the Cathedral. There is also information about the other activities of the Society (which has branches in Newcastle and Hexham), including church recording, children's trails and trails for those with memory impairment or dementia, heritage volunteering and Young Arts. Do have a look at the display banners, leaflets and magazines at the back of the Cathedral.
