Welcome

We warmly welcome all who are with us for today’s services. If you are visiting, or are here for the first time, please introduce yourself to one of the clergy.

Crèche

During the Sung Eucharist on Sunday mornings, there are books and toys for young children in St George’s Chapel, for parents and carers who would like to take their child/children for a few minutes during the service. The service is relayed into the chapel, to enable parents and carers to continue to follow what is going on in the Eucharist.

Junior Church

The children and their leaders leave for the Education Centre after the lighting of the Advent Candle. All children aged 5 or above are welcome.

Cathedral clergy helping in the Diocese

The Cathedral clergy offer to officiate in parishes in the Diocese which are currently without an Incumbent or where their priest is on holiday or unwell. The Dean is at St Nicholas, Gosforth, this morning.

Looking for something to read during Advent?

The bookstall has been restocked. The new material includes books to help us in our preparation for, and celebration of, the great festival of Christmas. The books include Advent for Everyone: A Journey through Luke by Tom Wright; The Art of Advent: A painting a day from Advent to Epiphany by Jane Williams; and A Shaking Reality: Daily reflections for Advent by Peter Price. There are also books for children. Advent Sunday marks the beginning of Lectionary Year C, during which the Gospel passage which we will hear most Sundays will be from Luke's Gospel. In addition to the Tom Wright book mentioned above, the bookstall has copies of Journeying with Luke: Lectionary Year C by James Woodward, Paula Gooder and Mark Pryce.

Other resources for Christmas

The Church of England has produced some resources to help with preparation for, and celebration of, Christmas. These are available at:

www.churchofengland.org/Christmas.

Launch of online Bible-and-art project

A £2million online project has been launched with the aim of presenting the Bible afresh to a visual generation. The Visual Commentary on the Bible matches three works of art with passages of scripture. Each triptych is chosen by a theologian or an art historian, who also writes a short commentary on each picture, relating it to the Bible passage – and then a fourth commentary bringing all four elements together. The images secured for the site are high resolution, and there is a powerful zoom facility so that users can contemplate the artworks in detail. There are currently 50 triptychs on the site, and the aim is to have 1500 by the end of the seven-year project. The site is at: <https://thevcs.org>.

Bible Study Group

This lively and stimulating group meets in the Education Centre at 11.00am on Thursdays. The current focus is on The Acts of the Apostles. All are welcome.

House Group

The House Group, to which all are welcome, is intended to help us grow in our Christian faith and life and to get to know each other better. The next meeting will be at 8.00pm on Wednesday 16th January at the home of Ruth Lunn (Silver Birches, 73 Montagu Avenue, Gosforth, NE3 4JN). We will be beginning our study of John Pritchard's recently published book Five events that made Christianity. If you would like to know more, please speak with Canon Harvey or Ruth Lunn – or simply come to the next meeting.

Organ Recitals – Mondays at 1.05pm

These recitals, on the Cathedral's Lewis/Harrison/Nicholson organ, last for 40 minutes. Admission is free, but there is a retiring collection (suggested donation: £5). The recital tomorrow, 10th December, will be given by Ian Roberts (Director of Music here at Newcastle Cathedral).

Christmas services and events – two things

1. Flyers are available on the Welcome Desk at the back of the Cathedral, giving details of Christmas services and events.
2. Please might you be able to help with stewarding for services and events during the forthcoming busy period? Even if you can help on just one occasion, that would be greatly appreciated. Please speak with John Stephenson or with one of the clergy. Thank you.

Friday this week, 14th December, at 7.30pm – Christmas Extravaganza with the New Tyneside Orchestra and the Choir of Newcastle Cathedral

A spectacular evening of Christmas music hosted by BBC Radio Newcastle's Anna Foster. The evening is in aid of Newcastle Cathedral's Sponsor a Chorister Fund. Tickets £15 (plus booking fee) from: <https://christmas-extravaganza.eventbrite.co.uk>.

Friday 21st December at 5.00pm – Walking Nativity

Join us for a lantern procession (with lots of carols) from Newcastle Central Station to the Cathedral, following Mary and Joseph on their journey. The Walking Nativity will last for about 45 minutes. It will be followed by a free half-hour concert by Newcastle's wonderful ROCK CHOIR! Meet in the portico at the entrance to Central Station for a 5.00pm start.
